

MISCELLANEOUS RULINGS WITH REGARDS TO SALAH

CLOSING THE EYES DURING PRAYER

SAYING AMIN AUDIBLY OR QUIETLY AFTER FATIHA

MAINTAINING ORDER FOR MISSED PRAYERS

QUNOOT NAAZILAH

RAISING THE HANDS FOR TAKBEER

RECITING WHILST LOOKING AT THE QURAN

PRAYING IN TRANSPORT

MOVING THE INDEX FINGER IN TASHAHHUD

WEARING A HAT

WIPING OVER THE SOCKS

RECITING BEHIND THE IMAM

POSITIONING OF THE HANDS WHILST STANDING

In the hanafi school, the opinion of Imam Abu Hanifa (Rahimahullah) is that it is _____ to perform salah reciting a surah WHILST looking at the Quran/Mushaf. Doing this will _____ one's prayer.

It is _____ to wipe over _____ as long as a full _____ has been performed before hand and the rules are followed with regards to it. There are conditions to wiping over socks which include 1.

_____,
2. _____
and 3. _____
and 4. _____

The sunnah is to have them _____ during salah. It is recommended to _____ towards your place of _____ whilst standing, towards your _____ whilst bowing, your _____ whilst prostrating and at your thighs whilst _____

This is a supplication due to calamity befalling the Muslims. This prayer is only performed in _____ prayer after the last ruku, ideally without raising one's _____. One should say amin _____. There is no _____ in any prayer if there is no calamity.

It is prohibitively disliked (_____) and thus sinful for the follower to _____ behind the Imam, even Surah _____ whether the prayer is a _____ one or an audible one. The proof for this is found in the Quran when Allah Says, listen to it and remain _____ so that you may receive mercy.

The sunnah is to say _____ after Surah _____ and In the hanafi school it should be said quietly.

This ruling is different for men compared to _____. For _____ the hands should be placed _____ the navel and the right hand _____ the left hand. For women, however the hands should be placed on the chest.

The Hanafi opinion in _____ the hands after Takbeer is that it is only done after _____ which is the _____ Takbeer. The hands are not raised anymore thereafter.

In the hanafi school of thought, one should raise their _____ finger whilst clasping the other fingers in Tashahhud. This is done when reciting _____ and the finger is dropped when reciting _____

Everyone agrees between all the schools of thought that a missed prayer must be made up. If one misses prayers equal to _____, they must be made up in order between them and the current prayer as long as there is no risk of the current prayer time elapsing. If the time is short for the current prayer, this should be prayed and then the missed ones made up in order. If the total number of prayers in quantity is _____, then one is not obliged to _____ between the make ups with respect to themselves.

Fard salah has to be performed in a _____ posture in a moving ship, train or aircraft. If a person feels dizzy or fears he will fall, he can _____ and pray. One must face the _____ and if the vehicle turns, he should also _____ in his fard salah. If one is unable to stand due to lack of space or too much turbulence, he can sit and pray but he has to _____.

Covering one's _____ is a sunnah for men and should be done during salah although it is not compulsory and wont affect the validity of the prayer.