

Companions of the Prophet

Circle the correct answers.

- 1) Who is called a companion of the Prophet (S.A.W)?
 - a) A companion is he who saw the Prophet (S.A.W) and believed in him and died as Muslim
 - b) All Muslims are considered companions
 - c) No one is a companion

- 2) Who were considered as the closest companion of the Prophet (S.A.W)?
 - a) Abu Bakr Al-Siddiq and 'Umar Ibn Al-Khattab
 - b) 'Abdullah Ibn Masud and 'Abdullah Ibn 'Umar
 - c) Khalid Ibn Al-Waleed and Salman Al-Farsi

- 3) How many of the companions have been promised paradise?
 - a) One thousand
 - b) One hundred
 - c) Ten

- 4) What is the Arabic word for companion?
 - a) Sawda
 - b) Sahabi
 - c) Shabbun

5) Who were the four Khalifahs?

- a) Adam, Nuh, Ibrahim, Yusuf
- b) Dawud, Sulayman, Musa, Isa
- c) Abu Bakr, 'Umar, 'Uthman, 'Ali

6) Fill in the blanks using the correct words from below:

FOLLOWERS MESSAGE AMBIYA MUHAMMAD
KHALIFAHS IMAN RESPECT SINNER

Every Prophet of Allah has a group of _____ who helped them spread the _____ of Allah. Our beloved Prophet _____ also had a group of followers who sat in his company, learnt from him and obeyed his every command. These people are known as _____. They are the most excellent people in this ummah. They are regarded to be the best of people after the _____. The most excellent amongst the Sahabah are the four _____. Their rank is according to the sequence of their khilafat (leadership). It is COMPULSURY to show _____ to all the Sahabah and to refrain from speaking ill of them and criticising them. Any person who speaks ill of any Sahabi is a great _____. There is a fear that such a person will lose his _____.