

Scenario 1

Zaid plays football with his friends after school. However, it begins to rain outside and the pitch becomes slippery. Zaid attempts to make a slide tackle but instead gets himself covered in mud. The sun begins to set and he needs to pray Maghrib.

Is Zaid able to pray salah with mud on his clothes?

Scenario 2

Amina was invited by her best friend Lucy to play games at her house. They had fish and chips for lunch which Amina really loves. She squeezed the ketchup bottle a little too hard being eager to start eating, only to find that she had squirted a little on her t-shirt. However, she didn't let that spoil her day and they both played scrabble. Lucy's dog came rushing over in excitement to see a new guest in the house and began to lick Amina's socks.

Identify the najasah on Amina's clothes.

Scenario 3

Yusuf went to the farm for a school trip. He saw many different animals including cows and pigs. However, he's not too fond of chicken. He managed to be chased by an angry chicken causing him to fall in to a pile of dog poo. His hand is now smothered in it.

How many times does Yusuf have to wash his hands?
